LONDON STUDIO CENTRE: BRIEF HISTORY

The internationally recognised Higher Education Conservatoire, prides itself on training excellent dancers, singers and actors, allowing students to specialise in ballet, contemporary dance, jazz & commercial dance and musical theatre. Whilst also producing graduates who have formed their own companies and established themselves as choreographers, teachers, producers, and directors. London Studio Centre offers a comprehensive suite of programmes including a BA (Hons) Professional Dance Performance Degree for students who are dedicated to the pursuit of excellence in all aspects of the theatre, an MA in Dance Producing and Management, for students looking to move into the production side of dance theatre making, an MA in Dance Performance in all four specialist areas of ballet, contemporary dance, jazz & commercial dance and musical theatre, a Foundation degree in Dance Performance aimed at the exceptionally talented students (from 16 years old), a BA Top Up Professional Performance, an MA in Dance Education and PGCert Professional Dance Teaching for those wishing to enhance their teaching practice.

London Studio Centre is rooted in Western theatre dance forms and enjoys a tradition of dance education dating back to the end of the 19th century, when Leon Espinosa (1825-1904) settled in London. In 1872, he established a school for ballet and related theatre arts, after having trained at the Paris Opera and then danced and taught at the Bolshoi Theatre in Moscow. His son Edouard Espinosa (1871-1950) continued the family tradition as one of the founders of the Royal Academy of Dance and then the British Ballet Organisation.

London Studio Centre's founder, Bridget Espinosa, was heir to this distinguished tradition, to which she contributed her own expertise as a dancer and director. Under her leadership LSC pioneered a multi-disciplined dance education fitted to the needs of the modern world of dance and musical theatre, which included the possibility of university validation of its provision. Her son, Nicholas Espinosa, continued these developments and, in 1995 Middlesex University validated London Studio Centre's BA Honours Theatre Dance programme. The Director, Nicholas Espinosa is also the Chairman of bbodance and a Trustee for Yorke Dance Project.

LSC began life in and around Tavistock Square in central London. In 1987 it moved into property on York Way, next to Kings Cross Station, where it remained until 2012. In 2012 LSC re-located to artsdepot in North Finchley where it has created a unique collaborative partnership with the performing arts venue. The partnership provides the conservatoire with rehearsal and performance spaces that facilitate LSC's high quality training, and the building's bright, contemporary feel has quickly provided the ideal atmosphere for London Studio Centre's home.

LSC's facilities comprise ten dance studios, two fully equipped theatres, drama and singing rooms, a library with IT suite and a lecture room. The triple-height atrium café and social areas also offer ample space for relaxation.

London Studio Centre is committed to providing an education in dance and related subjects for the professional theatre, in an environment where the individual creative talents of each student are nurtured. All programmes we offer maintain the Centre's mission to be a world-class conservatoire for professional dance and musical theatre, enabling artists to reach their creative potential in performance, creation and production and, thereby, shaping the future of the profession. LSC values and offers a holistic approach, one that keeps pace with recent developments in dance pedagogy. Student representation and student surveys contribute significantly to annual course monitoring and make an important and valuable contribution to quality management.

London Studio Centre is accredited by The Council for Dance, Drama and Musical Theatre (CDMT) and is listed as one of CDMT's Accredited Schools. The CDMT ensures the provision of high-quality professional dance, drama and musical theatre training through accreditation of full-time dance and performing arts schools and has provided the industry benchmark of quality assurance for professional dance and musical theatre training in the UK since 1979.

LSC is registered with the Office for Students, providing eligibility for students to obtain Student Finance and access to Visa's for international students. A review of the London Studio Centre by the Quality Assurance Agency for Higher Education (QAA) in May 2022, the UK's independent quality body for higher education, expressed confidence that 'academic standards are reliable, meet UK requirements, and are reasonably comparable' – the highest judgement available through the review process. The review team did not identify specific improvements or areas for development.

The majority of the teaching staff are actively engaged in professional theatre, enabling students to be aware of new techniques and trends. Students are given an unparalleled range of opportunities to gain performance experience, both in-house and in professional venues.

LSC's alumni are working worldwide with dance companies, in musicals and mainstream theatre from the West End to Broadway, in television, film and commercial dance. Graduate students have embarked on successful careers, joining companies such as Rambert Dance Company, English National Ballet, Matthew Bourne's New Adventures, Michael Clark Company, Richard Alston Dance Company, Sarasota Ballet, Scottish Ballet, Scottish Dance Theatre, ZooNation, Vienna Festival Ballet, the Royal Shakespeare Company and Royal National Theatre; while others have appeared in leading roles in musicals in the West End and elsewhere including American Idiot, Billy Elliott, Cats, Charlie and the Chocolate Factory, Chicago, Hairspray, Jersey Boys, Les Misérables, Mamma Mia!, Miss Saigon, Matilda the Musical, Memphis the Musical, Stomp, The Book of Mormon, The Lion King, The Phantom of the Opera, Thriller Live, We Will Rock You and Wicked to name but a few. Many graduates are also working as independent, creative artists in dance and theatre.
